1. Have someone in your group give a brief recap of Sunday's message, highlighting the primary Scripture points and the main idea of the message.
2. How did this message strengthen and/or correct your previous ideas about identity? Did you learn anything new about God or yourself this week?
3. What to people typically people their main purpose in life is? If you were to ask your coworker or friends or neighbors, "Why do you exist?", what would they say?
4. We exist to worship God. Who or what do you worship apart from God? What idols do you need to shed? What steps can you take to rid your life of idols?
5. How can we worship God in our work? In our relationships? In our recreation? In our rest?
6. When is the last time you invited someone to church? What prevents you from inviting people to church?
7. Do you fear other things or people, or do you fear God? Does your life reflect reverence of God?
8. What action step do you need to take in response to this week's message? How can your group hold you accountable to this step?

Action Step

Has your group engaged in season of giving? Prayerfully consider engaging with one of these ministries as a group (by serving with them or giving financially). Visit <https://thechapel.com/season-of-giving-2023/> for more information.
