1. Have someone in your group give a brief recap of Sunday's message, highlighting the primary Scripture points and the main idea of the message.
2. How did this message strengthen and/or correct your previous ideas about the truth of God? Was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you? Did you learn anything new about God or yourself this week?
3. How can a knowledge of the truth lead people to godliness? What is the gap between what you know of God's truth and what you obey?
4. Which of the discussed truths (God's unity, salvation, sovereignty, and character) stuck out to you most? Why?
5. Believers model God's unity. Can you claim this to be true when you reflect on your relationships with other believers?
6. What is your plan for studying the Bible this year?
7. What action step do you need to take in response to this week's message? How can your group hold you accountable to this step?

Action Step

Choose two days this week. At the end of each day, spend time in evaluation and reflection.

Evaluate:

What actions did you take and behaviors did you demonstrate?

How did you care, serve, or encourage others in your relationships?

Were your emotions regulated?

How did you spend your money?

How did you spend your time?

Reflect:

What was the gap between your knowledge of the truth and obedience to the truth?

Pray:

Write a prayer of confession and repentance. Ask God for His Spirit's guidance in walking in righteousness and obedience.
