Discussion Questions

1. Have someone in your group give a brief recap of Sunday's message, highlighting the primary Scripture points and the main idea of the message.
2. How did this message strengthen and/or correct your previous ideas about leaving a legacy of devotion to Jesus? Was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you? Did you learn anything new about God or yourself this week?
3. How can we constantly remind ourselves of the greatness of our salvation, so that we can live in light of it?
4. Read Titus 3:1-2. As Christians, we must be subject to rulers and authorities, be ready to do good, avoid quarreling, be gentle, and be courteous. Which of these is the biggest struggle for you right now? Why do you think this is a struggle?
5. What role does the concept of submission to authorities play in your life? How does Titus 3:1-2 challenge or affirm your current perspective?
6. How should we handle divisive people (according to Titus 3:10-11)? Can you relate this to any current situations in your life or community?
7. What action step do you need to take in response to this week's message? How can your group hold you accountable to this step?

Action Step

This week, invite three people to help you evaluate your devotion to Jesus. Ask three people in your life if you demonstrate a devotion to Jesus. Ask them to evaluate:

- Your conduct and speech
- Your dedication to God's Word
- Your commitment to the Church
- Your service to God and others

Based on your conversations, spend time in prayer, repenting of any lack of devotion and committing to live a life devoted to Jesus.
