Discussion Questions

1. Have someone in your group give a brief recap of Sunday's message, highlighting the main idea of the message and key points related to Hebrews 2:5-9. If members of your group attend different campuses, briefly summarize the message from each campus.
2. Read Hebrews 2:5-9. How does the passage describe God's plan for humanity and Jesus' role in fulfilling it? How does this encourage you today?
  - Why is it significant that Jesus became fully human and subjected Himself to the brokenness of the world?
  - How can you live with hope and joy in the brokenness of this world, knowing that Jesus has already overcome sin and death?
3. As we reflect on the message of Christmas, how can you share this hope with someone in your life who may be struggling or suffering?
4. Jesus is greater than ALL things.
  - What are some things in your life—relationships, achievements, possessions, or desires—that you might sometimes elevate above Jesus? How do these compete for your heart and attention?
  - Have you ever been tempted to view Jesus as one of many solutions to life's problems rather than the ultimate solution? How does this affect your faith and trust in Him?
5. What action step do you need to take in response to this week's message? How can your group hold you accountable to this step?

Action Step

Choose at least one of these action steps to take this week:

Daily Surrender Prayer

Set aside a few minutes each morning this week to pray and intentionally surrender any specific areas of life where you feel overwhelmed or uncertain. Also identify and surrender anything you may be consciously or unconsciously claiming to be greater than Jesus (a relationship, success, etc.). Acknowledge Jesus as greater than all things - including your challenges, worries, or fears, and trust Him to lead you through all circumstances.

Encourage Someone

Share a verse or passage that highlights Jesus' greatness with a friend or family member who might need encouragement. Take time to explain why this truth matters to you and how it can bring them hope and perspective.
