Discussion Questions

1. Have someone in your group give a brief recap of Sunday's message, highlighting the primary Scripture points and the main idea of the message.
2. How did this message strengthen and/or correct your previous ideas about the resurrection and Great Commission? Was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you? Did you learn anything new about God or yourself this week?
3. How does the resurrection provide hope for believers? How has it provided hope for you in your life?
4. Why does the resurrection of Jesus make it worth sharing with the entire world about Jesus?
5. What are you willing to do to bring someone to Jesus? What are some ways this week that you can make Jesus known to your family, friends, neighbors, or coworkers?
6. What action step do you need to take in response to this week's message? How can your group hold you accountable to this step?

Action Step

1. Take some time to write down names of three people in your life. Take this week to start praying for them every day. Then commit to start looking for opportunities to serve them and opportunities to share the Gospel with them.
