Discussion Questions

1. What trials, challenges, or struggles with sin are you facing? Share these with the group (as appropriate) and pray for one another.
2. Have someone in your group give a brief recap of Sunday's message, highlighting the primary Scripture points and the main idea of the message.
3. How did this message strengthen and/or correct your previous ideas about Jesus as our King? Was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you? Did you learn anything new about God or yourself this week?
4. Read Matthew 21:1-11. What words, phrases, or verses stand out to you? What do we learn about Jesus from this passage?
5. Read Revelation 19:11-16. How does this passage depict our King? What do we learn about Jesus from this passage? If you need some help with the images of this passage, you might find this resource to be useful.
6. Read Luke 19:41-44. Why is Jesus weeping over Jerusalem? How can we reflect the heart of Jesus, as expressed in that passage, toward our own city? Take some time to pray that the Lord would work in your heart to give you a love and burden for our region.
7. Read Revelation 22:20. In what ways do you need to adjust your life so that you can live in light of Christ's return?
8. As a group, take some time to pray for Jesus to return.
9. What action step do you need to take in response to this week's message? How can your group hold you accountable to this step?

Action Step

1. Invite someone to join you for either Good Friday or Easter Sunday service.
