

Series: For Everyone
Sermon: Everyone, Everywhere
Speaker: Jeremy Hazelton

Daily Readings

Monday: Exodus 31:1-10
Tuesday: Exodus 35:30-36:7
Wednesday: 2 Corinthians 2:12-3:6
Thursday: Colossians 3
Friday: James 1
Saturday: Romans 5

Discussion Questions

1. Have someone in your group give a brief recap of Sunday's message, highlighting the primary Scripture points and the main idea of the message.
2. When have you seen God do something extraordinary through your ordinary, daily living? When have you seen God do something extraordinary through others doing their ordinary, daily living?
3. Pastor Jeremy said that the Spirit of God goes to work with you. As you reflect on the seemingly ordinary parts of your day, how might they be important to God and his activity through you?
4. Who are the people that God has you repeatedly around on a daily or weekly basis? And how can you increase your intentionality in bringing the gospel to them this week?
5. Answer at least one of the following: What about the aroma of Christ in your life makes you different than the aroma of the places you most frequently visit during the week? Who in those places do you see responding well to the aroma of Christ in your life? What discomfort, resistance, or friction do you notice from people at those places? How does the gospel encourage you to remain Christlike when tension arises?
6. What is one way you would change how you do your normal activities if you were to "work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord"?

Action Step

1. Attend the Kingdom Come event on October 17 to connect with ministries focused on bringing the gospel to people in their everyday spaces.
2. Pray for the people you see often by name and for God to have you as someone they see as a sweet aroma of Christ. Pray for those who do not see your aroma of Christ as enjoyable.
3. Act on the Spirit's guidance on how to engage those you frequently see this week. This may be in how you conduct yourself around them and/or the truth He prompts you to share with His heart of love.
